

Proposal: Partnering with the 7uice Foundation to Build Boston's Black Wall Street on Roxbury.com

From the BlackFacts.com Team

Dale Dowdie (CEO, Boston-based) & Ken Granderson (CTO, Visionary Technologist)

Overview

Jaylen Brown's bold vision of building a Black Wall Street in Boston reflects the exact values and trajectory that BlackFacts.com and Roxbury.com have embodied for over 25 years. Through our pioneering work in digital empowerment, our full ownership of community infrastructure, and our deep roots in Roxbury itself, we are ready to help make this vision real.

We propose a formal partnership with the 7uice Foundation and Boston XChange (BXC) to launch a revitalized Roxbury.com - a flagship, Black-owned digital platform designed to be the public square, business directory, cultural archive, and launchpad for Boston's Black economic renaissance.

The Opportunity: Roxbury.com as the Digital Backbone of Black Wall Street Boston

We propose reactivating Roxbury.com as a robust ecosystem for community wealth-building, powered by the same principles as BlackFacts.com and aligned with the goals of the 7uice Foundation and BXC.

Core Platform Functions

1. Black Business Directory & Digital Marketplace
    - Mapped and verified listings of Black-owned businesses
    - E-commerce, Web2 and Web3-based loyalty programs, and sponsorship visibility
  2. Event & Resource Hub
    - Hybrid calendar showcasing local events, workshops, and pop-ups
    - Co-hosted 7uice Foundation and BXC incubator programming
  3. Creator & Entrepreneur Showcases
    - Pages and profiles for incubator grantees and community creators
    - Spotlight stories, testimonial videos, and performance analytics
  4. Cultural Storytelling & Historical Archives
    - BlackFacts.com-powered history engine - customized for Boston and Roxbury
    - Oral histories, youth journalism, and remastered legacy videos
  5. Youth Engagement & STEM Pathways
    - Integration with 7uice Foundation's STEM pipeline
    - Real-world content creation, publishing, and platform development roles for youth

Why Us? Why Now?

- Deep Legacy: We've been building tools like this since 1995 - including the digitization of Boston's Black history and the original Roxbury.com platform.
  - Cultural Authenticity: Black-owned, Black-built, and deeply rooted in the Roxbury community.
  - Technical Excellence: From grassroots platforms to national edtech systems - and even the official government web presence for an entire country (Saint Lucia) - our work spans borders.
  - Team Readiness: Dale Dowdie is on the ground in Boston, ready to collaborate. Ken Granderson ensures this will be a best-in-class, future-proof platform.

Let's Build This Together

We propose:

- A discovery session with the 7uice Foundation and BXC teams
  - Co-developing a live pilot version of Roxbury.com within 90 days
  - Featuring local businesses, 7uice/BXC program participants, and community creators from the start
  - Exploring pathways for sustainability through grants, sponsorships, and affiliate programs
