

STEM Programs targeting Urban Youth:

Do your students know that MIT graduated its first Black student in 1892, and has thousands of Black alumni across the globe today?

The Black Alumni(ae) of MIT wants your students to see us, hear our stories and take their questions at:

A bi-weekly Zoom event for urban STEM students to learn about and interact with MIT Alums who come from their cultures, backgrounds and neighborhoods.

The purpose of Meet BAMIT is to dismantle the 'deficit mindset' that Blacks are not represented at the highest levels of STEM in industry, government and education.

With 131 years of Black MIT Alumni(ae), when it comes to Blacks and STEM, as the saying goes:
"We ain't new to this, we true to this!"
